“Core Issues”

The Flatiron building in New York is one of the most photographed architectural masterpiece. I put a “Big Apple” twist to it and a Magritte “flair” via his famous painting called “The Son of Man”. In Magritte’s painting, the apple is untouched. I couldn’t resist the temptation of having the apple consumed, because of the implication of the consequences of such an act. We are not perfect, because we tasted the apple...
