“The Amalfi Coasters”

The floating cities are Positano on the right, Praiano on the top left and Amalfi on the bottom left. We went to a rehearsal dinner for the wedding of my wife’s best friend in a restaurant in the tower on the right side of Amalfi. Rather than having the usually seen pictures of Italy, I wanted to do something different, so I put them on the flip side of these rocky mountains I shot in Arizona. The clouds were taken from an airplane and the balcony was from a hotel room in Positano. The shot from the balcony actually puts you inside another “Amalfi Coaster” looking out to the others. I like the fact that it puts you there and you can imagine you are in one of those “Coasters,” floating in the sky.
